On March 28, 2012, she received a telephone call from [redacted] requested that his name be removed from the Congressman's mailing list and indicated that he had made this request in the past. [redacted] was speaking quickly and very loudly. [redacted] asked [redacted] for his name, address and telephone number. [redacted] was having trouble spelling [redacted] last name and asked him for the spelling when he stated, "if there was a gun, I would blow his fucking brains out" or "if there was a gun, I would have his fucking brains blown out" and "take this as a threat". [redacted] never mentioned "God" during the telephone call.
[redacted] became very uncomfortable and attempted to end the call as quickly and politely as possible. The telephone call lasted approximately two or three minutes. After the telephone call, she was physically shaking. [redacted] has received approximately five telephone calls from callers expressing displeasure with the Congressman's actions on certain issues, but none like the telephone call from [redacted] received no formal training on how to handle threatening telephone calls and the telephone calls are not recorded.
